11. (New) The omniazimuthal visual system of claim 1, wherein the arithmetic/logic circuit is a perspective transformation circuit which only requires changing one parameter in order to alternatively perform a pan/tilt function, or which only requires changing one other parameter in order to alternatively perform a zoom-in/zoom-out function, using the image data output from the imaging section.--